Political Pot Bubbles 4 Candidates File

Primary announcements and filing for candidacy in the Aug. 4 primary election in Hancock County will be as contested as in the past, though only four have filed, several have announced candidacy for county office and several others have been reported to be in the race.

Sheriff's race, expected to be crowded and heated one, will include the names of the Peace Nolan S. S., Highway Patrolman Fred and John Egloff.

One of these has yet filed or been officially announced.

Incumbent Sylvan J. Ladner expected to seek the newly created office of circuit clerk. Ladner prevents the sheriff succeeding himself.

Board of supervisors last approved division of the office of courts, now held by A. Shell, into that of circuit clerk and clerk of the chancery.

Virgil E. Stockstill, unsuccessful bidder for the same office four years ago, announced and filed for his repeat candidacy last week.

Although not publicly announced, Alton A. (Dolph) Keller has filed his candidacy for the office of Beat 2 supervisor. Keller is a nephew of Mrs. Semantha Keller, present supervisor in that beat.

A New Orleans man was killed and two others, one a Bay St. Louis resident, were injured in a three-vehicle smashup at 10:15 p.m. Tuesday on US-90, eight and six-tenths miles west of Bay St. Louis. It was Hancock County's fifth highway fatality of 1959.

Dead is John Gunter, 47, of 4401 Perlitast, Apartment A, New Orleans, who was taken to Hancock County Hospital and then to Gulfport Memorial Hospital where he died at 12:15 a.m. Wednesday.

Injured were: Francis Lee Coster, 38, 420 Carroll Ave., taken to Hancock County Hospital and treated for lacerations of the nose and chin, abrasions and chest injuries.

Albert Joseph Campbell, 20, Convent, La., Negro hitchhiker traveling in Coster's car, treated at Hancock County Hospital for lacerations of the hands and left leg and chest injuries, and released.

Highway Patrolmen T. P. Naylor and Joseph Pol, who investigated, said Coster was traveling west on US-90 in a 1955 Buick and was being followed by Wilbert Sweeney, 40, of Coghoma, La., driving an International Buick truck.

Gunter, traveling east on US-90 in a 1951 Oldsmobile, apparently cut across the center line and was struck by Coster's car. Gunter was thrown from his car, evidently from the impact of the collision.

Sweeney, seeing the accident, apparently attempted to pass around Gunter's car but cut into the path of Coster's car. Sweeney's truck then jackknifed on the wet, slippery road and hit Gunter's then vacant car broadside.

Damage to Coster's Buick was estimated at $750, to Sweeney's truck at $600 and to Gunter's Oldsmobile at $700.

Coster is employed by the office of the Motor Vehicle Comptroller, on US-90, near the scene of the accident.

Six were injured in three other wrecks on Tuesday's rain slick county roads.

Five children were hurt when the car their father was driving went through a bridge into a culvert ravine filled with six feet of water at 1 a.m. on US-11.

Clarence Jones, 40, Route 2, Picayune, rounded a curve on a half-paved section of road about five miles south of Picayune and lost control of his car, said Highway Patrolman William P. Kenny, investigating officer.

Jones, who was not injured, and Linda Jean Jones, 12, who suffered a crushed right leg, pulled the other four children out of the car to safety, probably saving them from drowning, Kenny said. Linda Jean Jones was taken to Hattiesburg for hospitalization.

Other injured in this accident and taken to Crosby Memorial Hospital at Picayune were: Christine Jones, 10, back injuries; Sam Eugene Jones, 4, cuts and bruises; Esther Jones, 2, general cuts and bruises and much swallowed water; Clarence Jones Jr., seven months, much swallowed water.

Cuts and bruises were suffered by the Birmingham, Ala., driver of a Deaton Truck Lines tractor-trailer who overturned the truck, filled with a load of roofing.

William Edgar Long, 29, was traveling west on US-11, about 1/4 mile south of the Louisiana line when, he told Patrolman Kenny, the lights of an oncoming car blinded him. He pulled off the road into a 20 to 30-foot fill, turned over and landed with the left side of the truck down in three DEATH CAR—This wrecked car carried 47-year-old John Gunter of New Orleans to his death in Tuesday night's three-vehicle smashup on US-90, eight and six-tenths miles west of Bay St. Louis. Two others were injured in the tragedy, which involved two cars and a butane truck.

Heart Fund Lags Far From Goal In County

Collections for the Heart Fund so far total only about half of the $1,200 goal, according to Mrs. C. R. Beyer, drive chairman for Hancock County.

This year's drive, which ends Sunday, may be pepped up by house-to-house solicitations which Mrs. C. E. Becker, Lakeshore chairman said will be made Thursday and Friday in Lakeshore and Clermont Harbor.

Collections there total about $75, Mrs. Becker said, although the goal was $225. Mrs. J. P. Rousseau is Clermont Harbor chairman.

Waveland collections so far total $174.37, said Mrs. K. T. Breland, town chairman. Waveland Home Demonstration Club and the Town and Country Garden Club members have collected much of the total in house to house canvassing.

As in other parts of the county, cards with containers for donations have been placed in business places, Mrs. Breland said that only 30 of about 450 letters sent to Waveland residents have been returned with donations.

Heart Sunday donations, brought in by Bay High School students who canvassed city homes Sunday, came to $156.28. A party for the youngsters at Bay-Waveland Yacht Club followed the solicitations.

Mrs. Beyer was assisted at the party by Mr. and Mrs. Henry

Chapman, Mrs. Leon T. Duplantier, Mrs. Whitney Pinnell and Miss Lucy Grantham, Bay High teacher and Beta Club sponsor.

A charcoal sketch of a magnolia tree, executed by Mrs. Bee Smith, will be presented for the fund during a Silver Tea this afternoon, which is being given by the Bay St. Louis Home Demonstration Club in the playhouse of the E. M. Brignac home on S. Beach Boulevard.

A Heart Fund sale will be Friday at Kern's Five and Ten Cent Store. Ten per cent of all receipts there Friday will be donated to the drive.

Students at St. Joseph's Academy and St. Stanislaus College have contributed $15 a piece, Mrs. Beyer said. Leetown School students gave $4.35.

Although 1,500 letters with return envelopes for donations were sent to Bay St. Louis residents, only about 30 have been returned, Mrs. Beyer reported.

Mrs. Becker said that response to letters mailed in Lakeshore and Clermont Harbor had been very slow.

Youngsters who participated in the Heart Sunday campaign, all members of the Beta Club or the junior or senior class, included Mary Henderson, Janie Crippen, Jane Ellison, Kathy Schaefer, Tommy Johnson, Bobby Camors, Billy Mont, Jerry Stephens, Virginia Breland, Larry Breland, Martha Allison, Gail

Higgins Dies From Injuries In Accident

Funeral services were Tuesday for John Vincent Higgins, 42, Waveland summer resident who was preparing to move permanently from New Orleans to Waveland, before an accident Feb. 14 which caused his death Monday.

Higgins was taken from Hancock County Hospital to Gulfport Memorial Hospital, where he died, after his car struck an oak tree at the corner of Waveland and Railroad Avenues.

The father of four, he was office manager for a New Orleans investment company, T. J. Feibleman and Co., with which he had been associated more than 25 years.

He was returning at the time of the accident from Waveland to his New Orleans residence at 5726 Caeter. He was alone in the car.

A requiem mass took place at St. Francis Cabrini Church, burial was in St. Mary's Cemetery, Algiers.

He was a member of St. Francis Cabrini Church, Santa Maria Council 1724, Knights of Columbus; Very Rev. T. J. Larkin General Assembly, Fourth Degree, Knights of Columbus, and the Holy Name Society of St. Francis Cabrini parish.

Survivors include his wife, the former Almee M. Prieur; a son, John Jr.; three daughters, Kathleen, Debora and Ann Marie; a brother, William O. Higgins, and three sisters, Mrs. J. L. Bell, Mrs. A. R. Tust and Miss Mary Theresa Higgins, all of the New Orleans area.

Legion District Meet Slated Here

The spring conference of District 9, American Legion, will be held in Bay St. Louis May 16-17 with the Hotel Reed tentatively selected as location for the gathering.

The invitation to meet here was extended at a district session Sunday at Gulfport by Russell Elliott, district vice commander and member of the Clement R. Bontemps Post No. 139.

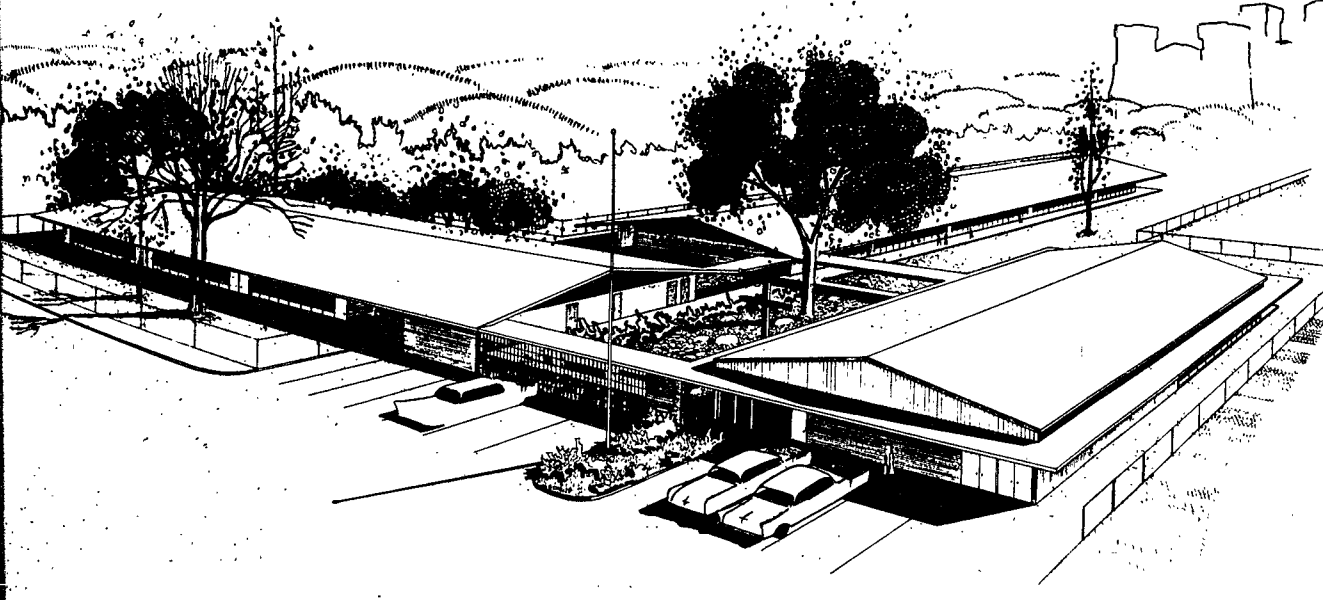

Gilbert Gayaut, second vice commander of the local post, was named chairman for the conference.

Hospital Plans Clear Wage OK

Long awaited advertisement for bids on construction of the proposed Hancock County Hospital should begin next week, U. S. Public Health Service has approved Gulfport architect, Wilfred Dawson's wage rate schedule.

This was the only barrier to advertisement after the Mississippi Commission on Hospital Care two weeks ago approved Dawson's final plans for the hospital.

The plans originally were scheduled for completion in July 1958. Delay in finalizing them and repeated corrections by the Commission held them up until this month.

Loyalty Dinner Sunday Launches School Drive

A Loyalty Dinner Sunday evening at St. Stanislaus College will formally launch the fund raising drive for the new Catholic school to be built by Our Lady of the Gulf parish which gets under way Monday.

Mrs. Lawrence Jacobi and Mrs. E. P. Larroux, co-chairman for the dinner, said that more than 1,000 invitations have been extended to parish families with over 600 acceptances already received. Because of the large number of invitations, it is possible that some members have been missed; however they are urged to attend, the chairmen said.

Construction of the school is slated to begin as soon as the drive is successfully concluded and it is hoped the building will be ready for occupancy with the start of the 1960 fall term.

Facilities will include 16 classrooms, administration offices, storage, kitchen and cafeteria with exterior covered corridors connecting the units.

Meanwhile, E. M. Brignac Jr., general drive chairman, has announced the appointment of 25 team captains for the solicitation. They are William Johnston, Emile Larroux, C. J. Piazza, Milton Durel, Sylvester Benigno, Cecil Williams, Charles Bous, Louis Moreau, Sr., Dr. A. K. Martinovich Jr., Alvin Gemin, E. J. Marengo, Edward Murtagh

Weather

Temperatures slightly below normal with a rising trend Saturday or Sunday is the prediction through the weekend. More rain is also expected.

J. B. Burrow's Car is Stolen

A two-tone green, 1955 Lincoln "automobile was stolen at 10:20 p.m. Sunday from the back yard driveway of Joe B. Burrow of 214 Second St.

Burrow told city police he heard the car motor starting and saw the car lights go on as the thief, who appeared to be a young boy, backed out of the driveway.

License tag number of the car was 295-316. The top of the car is a light, seafoam green and the bottom is a slightly darker shade, Burrow said.

Police officers immediately notified law enforcement officials throughout the area but have failed to locate the car, Burrow indicated that the robber may have gotten out of the county by going north through Kiln, since there was no road block there.

Three Jordan River Homes Ransacked

Sheriff Ladner noted that two houses adjoining the Fillingim property had been broken into, apparently at the same time. Owner of one adjoining house, evidently a summer resident, has not been identified. The screen door was broken and the house obviously had been ransacked.

Rotary Moves on Safety

State highway law enforcement officers were charged with inefficient handling of traffic and violators on Hancock County highways, in a lively discussion after a talk by a speaker for Mississippi Safety Council, at Wednesday's Rotary meeting.

Don Taylor, safety engineer of the Gulfport office, Mississippi Power Company, said the Safety Council attempts to coordinate its efforts with law enforcing departments but noted a lack of cooperation by these departments.

A committee of six, the Rev. Charles R. Johnson, Sheriff Sylvan J. Ladner Jr., Kenneth W. Pepperdene, Dan M. Russell Jr., Herbert Wise and Fred Quint, was organized after the discussion. A tentative meeting was set for Monday with a Jackson representative of the Safety Council in a first step toward bringing a cut in the local highway accident toll.

Several Rotarians protested highway patrol practice of operating radar equipped cars within the city limits. The patrol was charged with "hiding behind the bushes" and catching drivers entering the city at the point where the 60-mile speed limit zone on US-90 becomes a 50-mile zone. It was suggested that speeding would more effectively be cut and violators would be fewer by the obvious presence of highway patrol cars on the highway.

One member noted that none of the 18 fatalities last year or five this year were within the city limits where the highway patrol has operated radar cars on more than one occasion.

Patrolling of the danger area, which is generally agreed to be in the area from three to 10 miles outside the city limits was suggested as a more direct method of cutting accidents.

Taylor stressed the importance of three elements in highway safety control, education of the public, enforcement of traffic laws and engineering, which includes construction of safer and better marked roads.

Family Shooting Charges Dropped

Charges have been dropped against a Pearllington man who shot his brother-in-law, early Sunday morning apparently because of a domestic quarrel, Constable Harlan Dean, investigating officer, has reported.

Fred Wilkerson, 56, shot E. F. Cooley, 50, with a .22 caliber bullet which drove straight through Cooley's neck. Cooley went alone to Hancock County Hospital where he was treated and released Tuesday afternoon.

The shooting occurred at 3 a.m. outside the Magnolia Inn at Pearllington, one mile east of the Louisiana line.

County-wide Blood Typing Set March 9

A county-wide blood typing campaign and a general blood drawing were planned at a meeting Monday night in Knights of Columbus Hall by Hancock County Blood Bank.

All residents of the county may have their blood typed free on March 9, between 8 a.m. and 5 p.m. in Hancock County Courthouse, said Edward Murtagh, co-chairman. Miss Mary Isom, medical technician, will be in charge and members of American Legion Auxiliary will assist in the typing.

The general blood drawing will be from 2 to 7 p.m., April 8 in Bay St. Louis Youth Center. Technicians from Foundation Hospital at New Orleans will operate the drawing.

Dr. Wesley L. McFarland said at Monday's meeting that many persons did not realize the importance of having their blood typed before a transfusion was needed.

In an emergency the time saved by not having to type a patient's blood at the time the transfusion is needed might make the difference between life and death. He added that loss and deterioration of blood after an accident sometimes made it extremely dangerous to draw blood for typing.

The Bay Needs This Now

Mississippi traffic fatalities for the first six weeks of 1959 were 33 per cent more than for the same period in 1958. Over half of these deaths occurred in a town or within 880 yards of one. Already this week two more deaths have been added through area accidents. One resulted from a crash in Waveland earlier this month; the other from a collision Tuesday on U. S. Highway 90 a few miles west of Bay St. Louis.

While Highway 90 in Hancock County is dangerous for its entire course, the most dangerous point for the local motorist, that we've seen is where Main Street runs into this highway. Indeed it is one of the more dangerous highway junctions we've seen anywhere. With the growing number of businesses locating in that area, the automobile traffic moving onto or across Highway 90 will continue to increase with a proportionate increase in the likelihood of a tragedy occurring there.

There are undoubtedly other dangerous places in the same area which might justify installation of a traffic light. It seems certain that after the construction of a new school and new hospital a traffic light will have to be erected, or more drastic measures taken, where Dunbar Avenue crosses the highway. But that is in the future.

Right now it is almost imperative that a traffic light be installed at Main and U. S. 90. Since installation of a traffic light at this location is primarily the responsibility of the State Highway Department, the Echo urges Hancock County's State legislators, Sen. J. A. Ladner and Rep. W. J. Phillips, to start carrying this ball. Bay St. Louis, Hancock County and the traveling public need this light.

The Passing of a Landmark

About 80 years ago a teenage boy moved to Bay St. Louis. As that time the town's business district was South of the rail road, and, if he hunted, the boy probably shot rabbits and birds where our banks are now located, or maybe on the land where the Hotel Reed now stands.

Bay St. Louis grew and matured and so did this youth. He grew well. So well that for many years he was one of his community's most prominent citizens and a leader in his profession. Active for so many years of maturity he was almost a landmark in Bay St. Louis and one might well have thought he would keep on forever.

Rene deMontuzio Sr. died last week. He must have been a remarkable man. I wish I had known him. P. G., Jr.

Congressional Sidelights

By Rep. WILLIAM M. COLMER
Cotton

With the approach of cotton planting time it might be well for those who are concerned with the continued trend of smaller allotments for planting this once dominant agricultural product in Mississippi to consider the advice given the farmers of this District by my able colleague, Congressman Thomas Abernethy, of the 1st Mississippi Congressional District. The Northeast Mississippi Congressman is a member of the House Committee on Agriculture. As such, he is thoroughly conversant with the agricultural situation not only in Mississippi, but throughout the nation.

As it is known to those who contend that the South is being discriminated against in the matter of cotton acreage allotments, he says:

"The last free planting year was 1954. In 1954 when production controls were invoked by former cotton acreage allotment, Mississippi acreage was reduced to 75 per cent of the 1953 plantings. When California was reduced to 69 per cent. For this year Mississippi is down to 60 per cent but California is down to 55 per cent. So, California's cuts have been much deeper than ours."

"Over the control years, the South has lost a small portion of its advantage but such was not the fault of the control law. It was brought about by our failure to plant our full allotments and thereby maintain our full history. During the Soil Bank (Acreage Reserve) years, this did not happen because the Soil Bank law specifically took care of the history. But in previous control years - 1954 through 1956 - there was heavy underplanting throughout the South. For instance, in our own Congressional District, we underplanted our allotments by almost 25,000 acres each year. Think of it. We proportionately lost our history which is the basis for allotments to our farms, counties and State. This did not happen in the West because they saw to it that almost every allotted acre was planted. Why can't we do the same thing?"

"This year we are confronted again with the prospect of heavy underplanting. The Soil Bank was designed to get many of our people off the land and out of the farming business. Many who participated in the Soil Bank program in 1957 and 1958 have found their employment and others are without labor. There is a prospect of their acreage lying idle. If this occurs, everyone will be in a bind. The Soil Bank will have failed and the South will have lost its history."

"There can be no product. It is simple. Farmers who do not plant are not paid. The Soil Bank will have failed and the South will have lost its history."

Letters To the Editor

Editor, Sea Coast Echo:

Last Sunday a young dog was where he shouldn't have been. He was on Beach Boulevard in Waveland. He was a beagle called Boats, or more formally Boat-swain's Sea Lawyer. He was hit by a car. I think he died instantly, but I don't know. I don't think the driver of the car could have accomplished anything had he, or she, stopped. He didn't stop. Maybe he was rushing to church. He didn't care that he had killed someone's pet. If he's a lot bigger than I am it's probably just as well for me that Sunday I didn't know who he was. Boats was my dog.

Here's Slow Motion View Of Death at High Speeds

"John Collins, 38, of 210 Hill Place, was instantly killed last night when his car struck a tree on Route 35, two miles east."

Newspapers carry thousands of news briefs similar to this every year. It is a tragically common form of death, but one about which very little has been known.

For a number of years researchers like John O. Moore, director of Automotive Crash-Injury Research for Cornell University Medical College, and Dr. J. H. Mathewson of the Institute of Transportation and Traffic Engineering of the University of California have test-crashed hundreds of cars, studied thousands of accident reports from all over the country, visited the scene and microscopically examined the wreckage of cars in which hundreds have died. Crack safety engineers of the leading automobile-manufacturing companies have cooperated. Distinguished medical experts have written detailed autopsies of crash victims.

The primary reason for the research has been to reduce fatalities by making cars safer, more crash-proof. Out of it have come recommendations for safety belts, a different type of steering wheel, safety door catches, dashboard padding. But out of the research has also come something else: The terrifying picture of what happens to steel and glass, to flesh and blood, in the last split seconds when a human being is hurled into eternity.

This is the slow-motion, split-second reconstruction of what happens when a car, traveling 55 miles an hour, crashed into a solid, immovable tree:

1/10 of a second - the front bumper and chrome "frosting" of the grill work collapse. Shivers of steel penetrate the tree to depths of one and a half inches and more.

2/10 of a second - the hood crumples as it rises, smashing in the windshield. Spinning rear wheels leave the ground. The grillwork disintegrates. The fenders come into contact with the tree, forcing the rear parts to splay out over the front doors. In this same second tenth of a second, the heavy structural members of the car begin to act as a brake on the terrific forward momentum of the 2-1/2 ton body. But the driver's body continues to move forward at the vehicle's original speed. This means a force of 20 times gravity; his body weighs 3,200 pounds. His legs, ramrod-straight, snap at the knee joints.

3/10 - the driver's body is now off the seat, torso upright, broken knees pressing against the dashboard. The plastic-and-steel frame of the steering wheel begins to bend under his terrible death grip. His head is now near the sun visor, his chest above the steering column.

4/10 - The car's front 24 inches have been completely demolished, but the rear end is still traveling at the estimated speed of 35 miles an hour. The driver's body is still traveling at 55. The half-ton motorblock crumples into the tree. The rear of the car, like a bucking horse, rises high enough to scrape bark off low branches.

5/10 - The driver's fear-frozen hands bend the steering column into an almost vertical position. The force of gravity impales him on the steering-wheel shaft. Jagged steel punctures lung and inter-costal arteries. Blood spurts into his lungs.

6/10 - So great is the force of the impact that the driver's feet are ripped from his tightly laced shoes. The brake pedal shears off at the floorboards. The chassis bends in the middle, shearing body bolts. The driver's head mashes into the windshield. The rear of the car begins its downward fall, spinning wheels digging into the ground.

7/10 - The entire, writhing body of the car is forced out of shape. Hinges tear. Doors spring open. In one last convulsion the seat rams forward, pinning the driver against the cruel steel of the steering shaft. Blood leaps from his mouth. Shock has frozen his heart. He is now dead.

Time elapsed -- seven tenths of one second.

County Agent Notes . . . .

BY HOWARD SIMMONS
Dairying

Wild onion flavors have no business in your milk. These flavors can cost you money. Many pastures in Hancock County are heavily infested and this may cause your milk to be rejected.

If wild onions are growing in your winter grazing grasses and small grains, you can get rid of them with amine 2,4-D in 10 to 20 gallons of water to the acre. This will not kill the onions but will knock them down and out of the way of the cows.

If cows are grazing on pastures where plants are susceptible to 2,4-D damage and wild onions are growing in these pastures, be sure to take cows off such pastures at least five hours before milking. This will give onion flavor time to wear off before the cows are milked.

Farm Records
Every Hancock County farmer should keep a farm account record. This record will give you facts for improving your farm business.

A complete record of your farm receipts and expenses, together with inventory changes will help you locate the strong and weak places in your farm business.

Farm account records will also help you in preparing income tax returns and social security reports. They will furnish valuable information when you need to borrow money, settle an estate or in case you have a fire or other loss.

Adequate farm records need not be complicated. A satisfactory record includes a property inventory of what your farm has at the beginning of the year; a record of the acreage and production of crops grown, livestock or dairy production, and a record of all sale receipts and expenses. Remember, farming is a big business and gets more complex each year. You cannot afford to guess about your business affairs. You must know.

My Favorite Prayer

By CHESTER S. EDWARDS
President, Nitrogen Products, Inc., New Brunswick, N. J.

Lord, make me an instrument of Your peace. Where there is hatred, let me sow love; where there is injury, pardon; where there is doubt, faith; where there is despair, hope; where there is darkness, light; and where there is sadness, joy.

O Divine Master, grant that I may not so much seek to be consoled as to console; to be understood as to understand; to be loved as to love; for it is in giving that we receive; it is in pardoning that we are pardoned; and it is in dying that we are born to eternal life.

To the Merchants and Residents of Hancock County Your Chamber of Commerce Needs Your Help and Cooperation.

Our County, today, stands on the threshold of progress. We have the opportunity of a lifetime to go forward from now on. But things just don't move forward in a community unless the citizens, merchants, organized groups and political fathers work together as a team.

The results that can be accomplished with this teamwork are dramatically illustrated by Florida, where the governments, the people and the businessmen have worked together for their growth. Today it is one of the fastest growing States in the Union. Entire communities are springing up overnight. 16,000 families moved into one community in a year's time for retirement. Industrial development has kept pace with thousands of new industries moving into the State. Hancock County has as much or more than these Florida towns and counties.

Hancock County will have an abundance of fuel for industry as there are four producing oil and gas wells; 2 new wells being drilled; hundreds of thousands of dollars being spent on exploration and leasing; two natural gas pipelines in the County and two more being planned.

While the big problem of most States today is water, both for residential and industrial development, Hancock County is blessed with an abundance of water.

One of the problems of industry is to keep Labor happy during its off-hours. There is no place in the United States which offers more recreational facilities than Hancock County.

Have you ever stopped to think what happens when a new resident moves into the County? Just what does he need from it? The real estate broker, insurance broker, engineer, utility companies, lawyer, doctor, building supply people, grocery stores, drug stores, stations, garages—the bank gets a new account right on down the line. They all get a slice.

Where does your Chamber of Commerce fit in? There is one paid employee, our Secretary, whose salary is nominal—the balance goes for literature, postage, etc. In 1958, over 2,400 pieces of literature were mailed out to all parts of the United States to foreign countries, answering inquiries and advertising Hancock County.

The Hancock County Board of Supervisors has agreed to spend between $8,000 and $10,000 advertising the County and to induce people into moving to Hancock County.

A meeting of business people was called recently to form ways and means of handling this campaign in order to obtain the utmost for the people of Hancock County. With the anticipated amount of new industry, your Chamber of Commerce will need more money to do the job. We have the lowest annual dues on the Coast, $15.00 a year. We need your support and cooperation.

Every property owner and every business firm should join. The real estate owners and business people have a share in the progress of the community.

Your Board of Directors are working hard for the community. By helping them, you are helping yourself.

The study topic, presented by Mrs. Fred Leonard, dealt with activities of the American Cancer Society and American Heart Association. A movie, showing the danger signs of cancer in women, will be shown at a later meeting.

Mrs. Gloria Clay Mauldin, County Home Demonstration agent, demonstrated the care and use of the sewing machine and gave members short bulletins, titled, Short Cuts in Sewing, and cook books containing the member's own recipes for Christmas delicacies. These bulletins and cookbooks may be obtained by member not at the meeting from Mrs. Mauldin's office in the Agricultural Building.

Mrs. Clapp led the club devotional. Roll was answered with each member's favorite home chore. Coffee and cake were served by Mrs. Clapp and co-hostesses, Mesdames Hayes and Wayne Alliston, to 22 members present.

Shetlemore-Piland Vows Heard at Leggett Church

The Leggett Memorial Methodist Church of West Beach, Biloxi, was the scene of the wedding last Friday evening of Miss Mary Lou Shetlemore and Raymond Gene Piland. The Rev. Jerry Furr was the officiating clergyman.

Miss Shetlemore, only daughter of Mrs. Walter E. Shetlemore of Mid Oaks, Pass Christian, and Bernidji, Minn., chose as her wedding gown a fitted decollete Empress of Azure blue with an over-dress of delicate imported Italian lace. Bridal cap and mittens were of matching materials, and she carried bouquet of white roses and lilies of the valley.

Mrs. Peter Martin, matron of honor and the bride's only attendant, was in champagne colored lace. Her hat was fashioned of baby ericks in shades of bronze as gold and she carried a spray bouquet of similar orchids.

Leutenant Piland, son of Mrs. Bessie E. and Raymond A. Piland of Rainier, Ore., had as his groomsmen Walter E. Shetlemore, Edmond W. Shetlemore, brothers of the bride, Peter Martin and Thomas B. Rand.

The church was decorated with white candles in tall white candelabras, and urns of white roses and lilies of the valley against a background of Wedgwood blue interior. A program of traditional wedding music was provided by Raymond Barnes, organist.

Mid Oaks was the scene of an elaborate reception following the ceremony. The Misses Marilee Audion, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. LeGrand Audion of Biloxi, and Sharon Elaine Grant, daughter of Mrs. Cora S. Balmat of Pass Christian, served as tea girls, while Mrs. Balmat attended the guest register.

When the couple left for a wedding trip to Florida, the bride was wearing a tailored suit of bamboo shade with coral accessories. Upon their return they will live at 202 Third St. Biloxi.

Miss Bandner And All Are Engaged

Ten-cent Dollars

Speaking before the American Bankers Association in convention at Chicago, William A. Burkett, superintendent of banks for the state of California, predicted that we will have a 25-cent dollar in this country before too long "if the federal government does not do something to check inflation."

"If the history of the last 100 years teaches us anything," he said, "it is that inflation is more dangerous to a people than any other thing except war."

We who have lived to see a 50-cent dollar well know that some of us could live to see a quarter-dollar or a dime-dollar, if the government and its people continue to spend beyond their means and keep going deeper into debt.

The French franc that was worth five to a dollar in 1917, and recently revalued, is now worth 493 to the dollar, or five francs to a cent.

Federal Reserve Board Chairman William C. Martin, speaking in Chicago, expressed concern over what he called a break down in confidence abroad in the American dollar.

This was timely warning, for when the economy of a country cracks its other defenses crumble. A sound dollar is as essential to our national strength and security as atom bombs and missiles. The people's savings, their life insurance, their investments, their pensions, all depend upon a shock-proof currency.

The integrity of the American dollar at home and its reputation abroad depend upon economy in government, federal, state and local. There are but three ways to meet the unpaid bills of government—taxation, inflation or repudiation. An individual or a government that continues to borrow to spend creates an artificial prosperity that leads to insolvency, bankruptcy and chaos.

A nation that piles debt upon debt, refuses to balance its budgets and continues to run in the red, inflates its currency, circulates phoney money, undermines its defense and destroys the security of its citizenry.

We the people, dedicated to the preservation of the Republic, will live within our income or perish. Only a government that conserves can survive. We will save or sink. Only the strong stay free.

RESISTANCE-Charles Smith, left, of Sellars School and Carl Moran of Kiln School discuss the quality of this slightly balking Jersey cow with John Smith, Hancock County Assistant County Agent. The cow is a member of L. C. Turk of Perkinston's herd of 51 registered Jerseys and seven Holsteins. The youngsters were attending the three-county dairy cattle judging training school Friday at the Turk farm.

Dairy Cattle Judging Session Held

The importance of making and backing up a decision was stressed by conductors of a three-county dairy cattle judging training session Friday on the 1,400-acre Perkinston dairy farm of L. C. Turk.

Youngsters from Hancock, Harrison and Pearl River Counties practiced judging on Mr. Turk's herd of 51 registered Jerseys. George Crane, assistant extension dairy manager, of Mississippi State University, Jackson, conducted the session. After a brief review of the points involved in judging a dairy cow, the youngsters were given scoring cards on which they rated five cows. The session ended with statements from each youngster on the basis of their decisions. A lunch was served at noon at Sellars School.

"The value of these sessions lies in the decision making training these youngsters receive," Mr. Crane stressed. "We are educating young men and women, not necessarily as judges of dairy cattle, but as useful, responsible citizens."

"By learning on what basis to judge something, in this case dairy cattle, and how to defend that judgement," he said, "they are preparing themselves for one of the most difficult and important facets of adult citizenship."

Hancock County youngsters came from Kiln and Sellars Schools. Adult officials present included Howard Simmons, Hancock County Agent; D. J. Martin, Sellars school FFA leader; Davis Barnes, Kiln school FFA leader; Hugh Sanford, Hancock County soil conservation service technician, and John Smith, assistant county agent.

Young cattle raisers from Kiln school included Barney Necaise, Donald Koenen, Charles Ladner, McCoy Peterson, Norman Ladner and Carl Moran.

Valena C. Jones PTA Activities Net $160 in Month

Parent-Teacher Association of Valena C. Jones High School netted $160.02 in an exceptionally active month February. This includes the $25 prize received for the Mardi Gras parade float. Funds will go for beautification of the school grounds.

The groups second Fellowship program, held Sunday with the cooperation of several city and county churches, featured a sermon by the Rev. C. F. Jackson of Gulfside Assembly. Musical selections were by the choirs of V. C. Jones School and Little Zion, Morning Star and First Baptist Churches. The Rev. R. W. Weir was master of ceremonies. Other participants were Mrs. Ethel Frederick, Mrs. S. T. Peters and the Rev. J. P. Johnson.

Representatives of each of the 49 states paid a $5 recognition fee at a United States tea Feb. 19,

The Facts Speak

Open Letter To Mississippians

At a time when much of the nation was affected by a general business recession, Mississippi's economic progress continued unabated.

Gains in population, employment, bank deposits, plant investments, per capita income, oil and gas production and other indices were evidence of a diversified, growing and more stable economy.

More new and expanded industries were reported in Mississippi during 1958 than in any previous year---70 new and 42 expanded ones. And industrial employment reached an all-time peak.

Despite revolutionary changes in agriculture, the value of her farm crops was the largest on record by about 9 percent, and 15 percent above the 1947-49 average.

In twelve new oil and gas fields 195 producing wells were drilled in 1958. From 2,500 producing wells in 147 fields, the mineral output for the year totaled approximately $150 million, with Mississippi ranking tenth in oil production in the United States.

Bank deposits in Mississippi mounted to an all-time high of $1,153,157,618. Her percentage increases since 1939 in bank deposits and business volume, in pulp, paper, furniture, apparel, mining, food and fabricated metal manufacturing, and in electric power production, exceeded the national average by a considerable margin.

And Mississippi, with her high per capita birth rate, which has contributed so substantially to the economy of other states, shows a gain in population for the first time in two decades.

These are, indeed, promising days for a state that ranked fifth among the states in wealth and first in the number of millionaires before the War Between the States. For a state so long the most rural in the union, with 87 percent of her workers at one time directly dependent upon agriculture, a new day now dawns. To a people long famed for their perseverance, patience and tolerance, the sun rises over a horizon aglow with unparalleled opportunities.

For the believers and boosters, for all men and women of fortitude and faith, ours becomes a happier and more abundant future. And no one need make any apologies for these achievements.

Five Times Wed, Twice Divorced, She Gets 1 Year

A former Bay St. Louis woman, allegedly married five times and divorced only twice, was ordered by Harrison County Circuit Court Judge Leslie B. Grant to serve one year in the penitentiary after she admitted the bigamy charge during a revocation of probation hearing last week.

June Marie Jeanfreau, 21, received a suspended sentence in Hancock County circuit court in March, 1957, on a charge of bigamy and was placed on probation. In the trial she was charged with two Hancock County marriages, and no divorce. Her first recorded marriage was Oct. 27, 1954 to Arthur Jeanfreau Jr. She was charged with marrying Wesley J. Seaman Oct. 8, 1956. Authorities say the woman since was married once in Orange, Tex., and twice in Harrison County but received only two divorces. Alias name given for the woman in the record of the 1957 trial was June Marie Choina Seaman.
